

The Archdeacon of Sherborne has challenged the Archdeacon of Dorset to a “friendly” Inter-Archdeaconry football match on Wednesday 15th September in Dorchester at 7pm. Being new in post, Stephen is not up to date with the sporting skills of those in his patch. Regardless of gender, if you are able to play football, know anyone who does (preferably, loosely involved with the church!) either in your parish or in a neighbouring ecumenical parish, then the Archdeacon would be very keen to hear from you. # NOTICES

Welcome back to a new season/term—we hope you had a good summer break.

Today we say goodbye to Sarah Bladen who is going to be a full-time Christian volunteer at a church in Kent. Please pray for her in this new adventure. We hope to keep up with her news via Valentina and look forward to seeing her whenever she pops back to Poole. News of others; Tim Bifield will be going to St Mary's University in Twickenham to take up a course in drama and theatre arts. Jack Morgan is off to Plymouth University where he will be doing business studies. Please continue to pray for them too.

Back to Church Sunday. Everyone should have received a card to give to others to invite them back to church on 26 September when there will be 2 services, 8am Holy Communion and 9:30am Service of the Word. Please give away the first half and retain the other section to remind you to pray for the person. Don't forget make it as easy as possible for them by offering them transport or to meet them outside the church and go in with them on the day.

Alpha starts on Wednesday September 29 at 7:45pm with a taster evening, the course proper starts the following Wednesday. There will be leaflets available for you shortly to give to anyone who might be interested. Don't forget to persist in prayer for the people you have in mind.

Intercessions: There will be a short session at church this coming Sat 11th at 10.15 for about an hour for those who lead intercessions in worship or those who think they would like to do so, or even those just interested. Is there an art to it? Is it difficult? Is there a set pattern? Does it matter about the content? What length should it be? We will try and ask and answer these and other questions you may have. All are welcome, and, encouraged. Paul Renyard Please let the church office know if you would like to attend this session.

Today is the last chance to put money in the collection plate at the back of the church for those suffering in Pakistan.

Robert Kidega our careforce volunteer arrives here from Uganda on Thursday 9 September.

Peter is on leave from 6-19 September. In his absence Pastoral matters should be referred to Christine Brooks or Helen Mellows. All other concerns please contact our wardens Valentina Bladen & David Ridd or the church office 605311.

Now a Christian is a project operated by Church Army—a mission agency of the Anglican Church. For more information please pick up a card from the foyer or visit www.nowachristian.org.

THE OAKS Counselling Service, A safe place to talk about the things that concern you. All are welcome. For more information please take a leaflet from the foyer or telephone 07580
